HUME RULERS ALSO AFTER LEPER LAWS

K. Nakookoo Promises To Kill Immigration

With D. Kaona as chairman, the Home Rulers gathered on Vineyard street, corner of River, last night and addressed a meager audience. The meeting, which was to have been at the Kumalae block was postponed to avoid conflict with the Democrats. avoid conflict with the Democrats, who met there last night, and the speakers from there came to the Vineyard street meeting. The chair naked the audience to support the Home Rule ticket and vote for Brown as Sheriff, as there was no Sheriff on the Home Rule tick

Rev. J. Kekipi was first introduced for fear he might tumble down with it. He advised the audience to vote for the straight Home Rule ticket and not to omit any of the candidates. His speech was largely of a Biblical na ture and was no: enjoyed by the au dience, J. K. Nakookoo, candidate to the House, said that if elected he would kill both the immigration law and the laws pertaining to leper suspects. He attacked the Democratic platform because it did not contain the same in the circuit, Territory of Hawaii. In Probate; at Chambers. In the Matter of the Estate of James Dean, deceased. Order of Notice of Petition for Allowance of Final Accounts and Discharge delegates there emerged from Democratic ticket a haple delegate to Congress, McClanahan, "What are you going to do?" asked the speaker He continued that if the Hawalian selves the haole delegate would get the best of them all, "Pololei" shout ed the crowd.

Samuel Noar, candidate for Coun ty Attorney, said, if elected he would look after the interest of the Home Rulers, from whom he got his votes. He spoke of how at their convention John Lane, N. Fernandez and Ku-newa of the Republican party and Abraham Fernandez of the Democratic party were thrown down because they were Hawaiians. Here the speaker told a very interesting story. He said in part: There were two white boys who got into a fight. Near them were two Hawnian boys who, evidently getting interested in the fight, took part in it. When the white boys saw that the Hawalian boys were in it, they quietly with-drew and stood aside, laughing at the Hawailans, and both of the latter were badly bruised in the fight. He were badly bruised in the tight, He said the Home Rule, Republican and the Democratic Hawaiians were fighting amongsi themselves, and the consequence would be that the haoles would win in the end, and after election they would laugh at the natives. He admonished the audience to stand together now and not to wait until

It was too late, (Applause.)

J. K. Paele, seandidate for the House, next occupied the attention of the audience. He said, if elected he would raise the pay of the common Government laborer and kill the laws pertaining to the sending of leper suspects to the leper settle-ment without proper investigation. In closing, the speaker gave an exhibi-tion of his talent to "olioli," or chant-ing, and the audience cheered him en-

Joseph M. Poepoe, candidate for the House, received applause on his appearance. His remarks were few simply repeating that which had al-ready been said; but emphasizing it ready been said; but emphasizing it more clearly. Among other things he said that if elected he would endeav-or to strike out the word "alleged" from the words "alleged lepers," as it would then force the Board of Health to arrest the actual lepors and not the suspects of leprosy. He said all lepers must first be investi-gated properly and, if found incur-able, then they could be sent to the

The resolution favored appropriations for both the cutting away of the lighthouse spit and the extending of the harbor basin near the railroad waarf. Several members of the Board were however, in favor of laying more stress on the lighthous proposition than on the other, partly because they thought it was the most important of the two, and also be cause there appeared to be a feeling that certain private land owners would largely be benefited by the latter place. It is probable that the trustees will pass the resolution, but with an amendment placing the cut-ting away of the spit first in impor-
